

The

GW FAKE-IT

Vol. 87, No. 48

Yo Knows

Since Today

The George Washington Conglomorate

Washington, D.C.

We Do Hoaxes Right

Monday, April 1, 1991

IT REALLY HAPPENED!

Special correspondent Maryann Kashimi tells of bizarre campus events. — p.3

GW honors Jodie Foster and John Hinckley for their part in the Reagan assassination attempt. — p.3

SHE'S YOU!

GW's Fashion Extravaganza — p.8

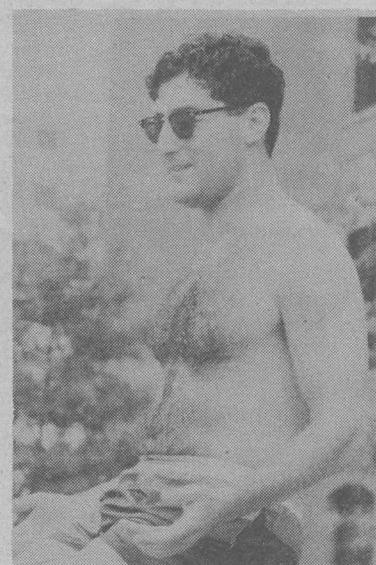

FATHER, SON UNITED

'While Dad was selling Deal a Meal and sweatin' to the oldies, I've been making the world better,' says little Rich — p.10

BUSTED!

JEC says Parker sold sex for votes — to men! — p.13

HAPPY APRIL FOOL'S DAY!

Remember, all of the stories in this issue are fictitious and are not meant to be taken seriously. They are not written with malicious intent. So sit back, laugh and enjoy! If you would like to file a complaint, please call Frank at 994-7100.

INTERNATIONAL WEEK '91

Monday, April 1st

- ★ BROWN BAG LUNCH SPEAKER
Dean East, ESIA: "Foreign Policy - Making in the Post Cold War World"
12:00 pm - 1:30 pm, Marvin Center 402
- ★ CERAMICS STUDIO OPEN HOUSE
The Ceramic Studio is open to anyone who wants to experiment with clay.
9:00 am - 4:00 pm, Smith Hall, Room A-304, 3rd Floor Academic Center
- ★ ISRAELI DANCING
Demonstration and Instruction of Israeli Folk Dancers by Kevin Avner and Sandy Weiss. Refreshments will be served.
7:00 pm - 10:00 pm, Marvin Center 402
- ★ KEYNOTE PANEL DISCUSSION
"The Post Cold War World", Moderator: Dean Maurice East, ESIA, Panel: Niikwai Akvetteh-Director of Research and Education at TransAfrica, James Phillips-Deputy Director of Foreign Policy Studies at the Heritage Foundation, Dorrell Phillip Charles-University of Maryland, Baltimore, Ambassador Clovis Maksoud-Fomer Arab League Ambassador to the United Nations.
8:00 pm, Marvin Center, 3rd Floor Ballroom, Reception to follow in Colonnade Gallery.

Tuesday, April 2nd

- ★ BROWN BAG LUNCH SPEAKER
Dorothy More, Education Department, GW - "Cross-Cultural Communication: An Imperative for the 21st Century"
12:00 pm - 1:30 pm, Marvin Center 402
- ★ BROWN BAG LUNCH SPEAKER
Dr. Constantine Menges - "Transitions to Democracy in Eastern Europe: Trends and Implications"
12:00 pm - 1:30 pm
- ★ CROSS-CULTURAL PRESENTATION
Dr. Robert J. Harrington - "Role of Faculty in Britain v. United States"
3:00 pm - 5:00 pm, Marvin Center 402
- ★ DOCUMENTARY VIDEO: INDIA UNVEILED
A presentation by Indian Student Association
12:00 pm - 5:00 pm, Marvin Center 410
- ★ VIDEO PRESENTATION: GIAN FRANCO FERRE FASHION PRESENTATION
6:00 pm - 7:00 pm, Marvin Center 402
- ★ ISRAEL-ARAB RELATIONS: THE BIG POWER CONFLICT IN THE MIDDLE EAST
Speaker: John F. Rothmann, Former President of the North Pacific Region of the Zionist Organization of America
8:00 pm - 10:00 pm, Marvin Center 413

Wednesday, April 3rd

- ★ INTERNATIONAL MARKET DAY
Displays from over 25 international and US student groups plus university departments, featuring ethnic cuisine, cultural information and craft exhibits, study abroad and overseas work opportunities.
11:00 am - 3:00 pm, Gelman Library Quad, Rain Site: 4th Floor Marvin Center
- ★ BROWN BAG LUNCH SPEAKER
Professor Henn Nau, ESIA, "America's Decline, EC's Ascent: Myth or Reality?"
12:00 pm - 1:30 pm, Marvin Center 404
- ★ PROFESSOR MILKOS VEREE
"Hungary Past & Present", Sponsored by Euroclub
5:00 pm - 6:30 pm, Marvin Center 414
- ★ BEYOND THE GULF WAR: FINDING THE MISSING PEACE
Israeli-Palestine discussion with two moderating professors. Sponsored by SBPM Doctoral Students Association and International Student Society.
7:00 pm - 9:00 pm, Marvin Center 404
- ★ LEBANON: A SLIDE PRESENTATION. Presented by Tourism Association
7:00 pm - 8:00 pm, Marvin Center 416
- ★ JAPANESE-AMERICAN RELATIONS IN THE 1990's
Roundtable discussion with the following participants: Professor Thayer-John Hopkins University Specialist in Japanese Affairs, Professor Gaston Sigur-ESIA, Mr. Naito Yoriushi-Bureau Chief of Asahi-Shinbun Newspaper.
8:00 pm - 9:30 pm, Marvin Center 3rd Floor Ballroom

Thursday, April 4th

- ★ BROWN BAG LUNCH SPEAKER
Ambassador Ronald Palmer-ESIA, "Trends in the Development of Multi-Partyism in Africa"
12:00 pm - 1:30 pm, Marvin Center 404
- ★ INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ART SHOW RECEPTION
Come view international art and broaden your cultural horizons. Co-sponsored by International Student Society and Student Association.
4:00 pm - 7:00 pm, Marvin Center, Colonnade Art Gallery
- ★ VIDEO PRESENTATION: YVES ST. LAURENT FASHION PRESENTATION
6:00 pm - 8:00 pm, Marvin Center 413
- ★ INTERNATIONAL FILM: "THE LAST EMPEROR", Tickets $2, $1 with GW ID.
8:00 pm and 10:30 pm, Fungar 103
- ★ EVENING ADDRESS
Speaker: Melvin P. Foote of AFRICARE, "The Role of African-Americans in Third World Development". Co-sponsored by Black Peoples Union
8:00 pm - 10:00 pm, Marvin Center 404

Friday, April 5th

- ★ BROWN BAG LUNCH SERIES
Professor Hiltzbeitel-Religion Department, GW, "Classical and Folk Hinduism: Eunduisim and Fire Walkers"
12:00 pm - 1:30 pm, Marvin Center 403
- ★ VIDEO PRESENTATION: FASHION PRESENTATION OF HERMES
4:30 pm - 6:30 pm, Marvin Center 413

Saturday, April 6th

- ★ INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS' SOCIETY 59TH ANNUAL EMBASSY DINNER
This renowned event includes buffet dinner of international cuisine, fashion show, cash bar, international DJ and dancing. For ticket information and questions: 994-6860
7:00 pm - 1:00 am, Marvin Center, Market Square

Sunday, April 7th

- ★ THE CHERRY BLOSSOM FESTIVAL FINALE - Look for details around campus
- ★ "BULGARIANS"
The 24 member choir - composed of village women selected for their vocal ability - sings with vibratotess sound that is both piercing and ravishing. Performing in six-part harmony, these women in native costumes bring to today's concert stage a musical style that is both old and brand new.
Tickets: $22.50. $10.00 for student/faculty - available at Marvin Center Newsstand. For more info call 994-9120 or 994-1500
8:00 pm, Lisner Auditorium

Bizarre occurrences hit GW, Kashimi says

by Phil Cloud
Hoax Reporter

A string of bizarre events has plagued GW's campus this week, including the crumbling of the Gelman Library, the disappearance of the Foggy Bottom Metro station and the landing of a UFO on the quad, according to Second District D.C. Metropolitan Police Department Officer Michael "Mark" Smith.

"I saw it all," GW sophomore Maryann Kashimi said. "I was there. It really happened."

According to Kashimi, no students were hurt when the library collapsed Monday afternoon. She said GW Stupid Association President Franky Petmonkey got on his blow horn and instructed immediate evacuation. According to Kashimi, Petmonkey said, "The sky is falling, the sky is falling. Grab all the books and get out."

Kashimi said all 23 of the books in Gelman Library were saved.

Second on the litany of bizarre occurrences, small green creatures were seen scoping the quad Tuesday night after their space ship landed, Kashimi said, adding they were at GW to examine the effects of global warming caused by excessive hair spray in the atmosphere.

"The martians talked and everything," she added. Kashimi said she also had seen a UFO while enrolled at Tulane University, but no one believed her. "That's why I love The GW Fake-It. They'll believe anything," she said.

For Sale: Student Newspaper
Great Tax Opportunity, Creative Balance Sheets
Call Mr. T at 994-6500

When asked to comment on the incidents, Vice President for Athletic Supporter Services Bobby Chernyuk said, "You little shit. You woke me up. Sure I said to call any time if it's important, but I didn't really mean it. You know I don't really mean anything I say."

Kashimi said she also sighted GW President Stevie Joe Tractorbutt flashing his chest yesterday at a group of prospective freshmen touring campus. "He just ripped his shirt open," Kashimi said. "I guess it was a PR stunt or something, but it sure didn't work."

Tractorbutt could not be reached for comment despite repeated phone calls to his home. According to Tractorbutt's children, their father was in his shrine eating caviar.

Kashimi also revealed the University's plan for ripping up H Street from 21st to 23rd streets and building a canal. She said Tractorbutt was sick of people always referring to the Georgetown Canal. "Now GW will be able to compete with real topnotch schools," she said.

Kashimi, an independent consultant for the University, said she wants to keep students abreast of all news.

Officer Smith, who was beeped by Fake-It staff members, confirmed Kashimi's claims. "Yea, it happened, but that's all I can say. I can't comment on the details," he said.

Hinckley, Foster to receive award

GW thanks attempted assassin for contribution to University's history

by Another Round of the Beast

As a follow-up to granting the honorary doctoral degree to former President Ronald Reagan, the GW Progresso Soup Union, Broad's Issues Now and Students for Free-for-all Guns will present some really neat awards to failed assassin and all-around cuckoo John Hinckley, Jr. and actress Jodie Foster — who inspired Hinckley to shoot Reagan, according to former GW student Maryann Kashimi.

Hinckley, now imprisoned in an institution for the criminally insane, will be released for five hours to attend the April 31 ceremony outside the Washington Hilton where the attempted assassination occurred approximately 10 years ago. Foster, too, will fly in from California to accept her prize and make some remarks.

"Jodie really understands what it means to be loved," BIN member and submissive slave Marge Crazy said. "I mean if any man tried to shoot another man for me, I'd fall down on my knees and beg for him."

Hinckley said he was driven to shoot Reagan because of his love for Foster, a love he realized after seeing her in Martin Scorsese's Taxi Driver. The ceremony will be the first time Hinckley and Foster have met face to face.

"I'm really excited to finally meet him," Foster said in a Fake-It telephone interview. "I mean if a guy tries to kill someone because he loves you, normally I would say it was no big thing, but John tried to kill Ronald Reagan. I figure I owe him at least a kiss to acknowledge his attempt to win my love."

GW President Skeevin' Mole Smackherbutt could not be reached for comment about the upcoming ceremony.

Hinckley said he thought it was "sweet" to be getting an award from Georgetown University. "That's a pretty good school, isn't it?" he asked.

When corrected about which university was actually giving him the award, Hinckley said, "Oh, the safety school, the one with the cool bus and the yellow banners. Sweet."

Hinckley said he had been in full support of the Brady Bill until Reagan announced support for the bill at last week's presentation.

"It just wouldn't be right — politically, you know — to agree with something Reagan is supporting. Deep down, though, I think it's a good idea to make the wackos of this world wait a week to get a gun," Hinckley said.

PSU leader Brad Seagull said, "Karl Marx had a real vision and John (Hinckley) was just trying to accomplish that dream."

"Reagan is just a tool of the bourgeoisie attempting to dominate the proletariat and crush the middle class for his own tempestuous desires and greedy, selfish, capitalistic hopes," Seagull added before being escorted away in a straight jacket.

Outgoing College Republicans President Chris "White Boy" Topping said, "Fuck them. I mean what kind of liberal assholes give an award to a guy who tries to shoot my family's mentor — the greatest president ever. By the way, is the Fake-It covering our speaker tonight?"

The GW Program Board will sponsor a screening of Taxi Driver before the award presentation. The PB will also present Hinckley with an unloaded .44 Magnum as a gesture acknowledging Hinckley's recuperation from complete insanity.

When asked what he thought about the upcoming events, President Reagan said, "I'm just gonna get a burger at the Starvin' Center and a soda at the Home, go see a congressman speak at the Gnat and cheer for the Custodians and pretend like the whole thing is going to happen as if it had never happened before."

Seniors

If you still want a brick inscribed with your degree and year, you MUST send cash or a money order ONLY for $115.95 to the Marvin Center, Room 433 by April 21, 1991.
Include your name and degree as you wish them to appear on your brick.
PSU members need not apply.

6th Annual AEP BASKETBALL MARATHON

Thursday April 4, 1991

4-on-4 "B-Ball"

T-Shirts, Food, Prizes

$100 Entree fee per team up to eight players

FOR INFO AND ENTRY CALL

TODD 994-9749

SIGN UP NOW!

PROCEEDS BENEFIT NATIONAL HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL

EDITORIALS

Politically correct

This editorial has been censored for political correctness.

We all that will not under the verbally when in a by . However,
, we all of the . The world's
It is a that understand the end.
In fact, become excruciatingly to Conversely, if one has not Conversely, if one has not and should, that all appear hesitation. that and , without
The Fake-It recently a of and
. It states that, " : When determining
, it shall be to the and the examining to decide a ; Secondly, when or is use for all ; Finally, in an ideal would hinder all and Should a be allowed to within the of to within the confines of an and continue?
Clearly the answer is needs a comprehensive to thwart and all while the is still
It is a that can us and that this could effectively be Need we say more?

Kudos, kudos, kudos

Kudos are in order to the GW community, which is chock full of the most sensitive, caring and tolerant students in the whole world.

The Young Americans for Freedom deserve special recognition for their ability to listen and learn at events. They tirelessly show up to things and do a great job listening to opposing views. Take the Sarah Brady speech. A special hats off to Russ Nomad for bringing her flowers and chocolate candy. That was so sweet of you, Russ. And when Ronald Reagan announced his support of the Brady Bill, all the YAFers stood up and cheered. We were touched.

And then there's Gay Awareness Week. Founded by gays, it was most appropriate that YAF take part in these events. It would have been dull and boring without you guys. The GW community was clamoring for a Straight Awareness Day and you guys delivered. Keep up the good work.

But who can talk about tolerance without mentioning the lovely gals of WIN? Your work to raise awareness has been an inspiration. You're so rational and practical when dealing with the issues, always ready and willing to listen. We would like to kiss each and every one of you. Don't ever change.

PSU has also been great. The way you welcomed the CIA, praised the brick program and all showed your support for almost every CR and YAF event on campus is truly admirable.

And then there's those kids for firearm awareness. If they had enough money, they would get a gun for every student, staffer, administrator or faculty member. They sure are generous.

We can't forget about the general student body, either. Not one of them would ever raise a finger to hurt another. The peace loving, kind-hearted, tolerant students at GW deserve a round of applause. Hip, hip, hooray!

What a great school. You gotta love it. People like you make this truly the greatest University serving the greatest students in the whole wide world. Kudos galore.

The GW FAKE-IT

Pat Rice Hall, mother bunny

Dweeb Spider, loves Lisa
Jimbo Plageriser, miles from the closet
Anu Benshoof, doesn't wear panties
Alc Spinoli, eligible bachelor
Ked Crotch, very articulate
Alisa Cash, PTA mother-to-be
Buff O'Goldfarb, first UP in the morn
Phony 'edit at will' Palermi, eats crow
Bob Blondie, picks her nose
Sadam Farmerinthedell, hates ZBT
Merle Instead, where is he?
Laughing Al-Solomon, pad upside down
Merry Fishy, closet JAP
Scoff Farrot, clean cut

Stevie Morose, having a crisis
Zama the Cooker, hey man
Supreme B. Dalton, peppy prep
Todd's Peter, loves business assistants
Yo-Lick my Chu, lives for classifieds
Mary Tyler Moore, calm & cool
Alisa Cash, going to the chapel
Anu Benshoof, hates pubes
Kenny Curtsy, doesn't work here
Staring Hughes, looks confused
Toilet Millher, do it over
Bobby Black, licks the Fake-It
Paulo Conholy, water boy
Smarin Feeltz, Fake-It poster girl

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Love it

I just want to publicly express the deep gratitude I feel toward the Fake-It editors for their efforts on the April Fool's edition. I enjoyed last year's issue so very much. I laughed and laughed. Thanks, kids, for the great job you do.

-Jill Sandcastle

Uhh

Well, uhh, you know, uhh, you know, well, uhh...

-Fred Crotch

Bored

This is an open letter to all students who suffer from SA NERD SYNDROME. Symptoms include sitting in the office all day, talking about old SA elections, going to senate meetings, actually believing the SA does something, thinking you're important and assuming people even know you exist. For help, stop by the SA.

-The mafia

Nose

There's something in my nose.

-Speedy Tractorbutt

I want it

Alright, alright, I really do want a brick.

-Dana Nailpolish

Thanks

We would like to thank the one listener who tuned in for our SA election results. Thanks, mom.

-Lily Cotton, WRTV

Crook

I'm not a crook.

-Scary Frank

Call me

Please only call me at home after midnight.

-Bobby Chernyuck

Nabbed

What? Me in trouble with GW? Never.

-Ellis McSlappin'

The GW Fake-It, located in the sex-filled Marvin Center in the crime capitol of the world, is the student newspaper of the George Washington University which is not Georgetown (which you can tell because it's so damn hard to find a priest when you need one). The Fake-It is published when and if we feel like publishing it- and the very fact that we ever feel like publishing it is indicative of the mental ability of the staff. Opinions expressed in signed columns are those of the twisted lunatics who write to us. We are not responsible for what they say and we are frustrated when we realize that we will be graduating from a University that admitted these bozos in the first place. Fake-It editorials represent the opinions of the paper's editorial staff, which consists of as many as three admitted alcoholics and even more future Washington Times reporters. Any letters should be addressed to the Fake-It - and if you intend to write about abortion, bricks, the problems of the Middle East, rape or the First Amendment you should just go and throw out your own letters and save us the trouble. We reserve the right to edit at will any submissions and, if necessary, urinate on them.

Two-Faced

Here's some underground, backstabbing information ... Wait, is anyone watching? I wasn't here. You never saw me? Right? Right!

-Dave Pecker

Stupid

The YAFers and CRs and all you radical weirdo groups are a bunch of intolerant morons. Your views make people like me puke and pretty much indicate that you have sex with farm animals on a regular basis. Oh, and you owe me an apology too.

-Rad Segull, guru
-The Union of Sensitive Bohemes

More Stupid

The LGPA, PSU, CDs and all you radical weirdo groups are a bunch of intolerant morons. Your views make people like me puke and pretty much indicate that you have sex with farm animals on a regular basis. Oh, and you owe me an apology too.

-Snott Louse, chairman
-Young White Boys of America

Rah

We got spirit, yes we do. For $2,500, you would too.

-The GW Bland

You were right

We think the GW Hatchet is a great paper. We apologize for asking all of you to resign. After attending a Journalism Awareness Workshop, we found out how wrong we were about you guys. We learned you are overworked, underpaid and getting nothing but grief from the community you serve so well. Keep up the good work, and again, we're sorry.

-the BPU

My left foot

Kudos to the Hatchet for letting the entire GW community know about my foot fetish. It's started dialogue about a problem that really needs to be dealt with — podophilia. Thanks.

-Manly Jimmyez

Sing it

We know we look stupid, but it's fun singing about rubber ducky, dressing in black and making our faces look distorted.

-The Troubles

Shoot him

Russ, don't think I forgot that night. It was dark, and you put your hand on my knee — right in front of everyone. I was humiliated. It was then that I understood your stance on gun control. Was that a gun in your pocket or were you just glad to touch my knee?

-Pammie Brady

Confession

I have a confession. I have to tell you about the time I ended up sitting on the curb doing drugs with some guy I don't even know. I got totally shit-faced and I couldn't control my body. Some guy picked me up after I'd fallen on the sidewalk and I was so scared it was this hot guy from work, but someone convinced me it really wasn't him. Am I rambling? I don't know what it is about this guy, but the way he shrugs his shoulders and purses his lips makes his coquettish nature carnally fascinating to me. Sigh.

-Sharin Wizard

Statehood

I'm from Silver Spring and you should write Washington D.C. (without a comma) because a comma implies statehood and the District is certainly not a state. By the way, I'm getting some pretty good nookie from my 13-year-old babe.

-Yo Seltzer Water

Greek Letters

For the millionth time, they are Greek-letter organizations. Not Greek system. How many frat brothers are Greek?

-Puff the Magic Dragon

Who?

Who's Mark Vane?

-Paulo Connolly

I suck

The only reason the team did so well this year is because I recruited so many outstanding players to GW. You owe it all to me.

-Johnny-boy Q-Stir

Disappointed

I really wanted to be on "A Current Affair."

-Lindi Donhells

IRRELEVANT OPINION

Laughing all the way, Tractorbutt says 'see ya' to GW

"That which does not kill me makes me stronger."

Frederick Nietzsche would have made a good university president. His "superman concept" pretty much sums up what it is like to be me. You just do not know how difficult it is to be as great as me, and have to deal with such mediocre peons that infest GW's little community.

Every day I get mail from you intellectual earthworms, with complaints such as: "There's too much crime." "This school costs too much." "The administration doesn't care about students." Me, me, me. Is that all you guys think about?

If you knew what a tough job being the president of a university is you people would understand my plight. The other day I was on a plane to the Bahama-mas to attend a conference for People Who are So Damned Smart That They Can't Stand Still (GW picked up the tab). I told the guy next to me I was president of THE George Washington University. The guy said, "Go Hoyas." When I explained to him that I was president of GW he said, "Oh. They suck." And after a lengthy conversation, he jumped out of the plane and into the Atlantic Ocean.

Well, I got tired of people telling me GW sucks and then committing suicide when I got near them. So instead of saying I'm GW's president, sometimes I say I'm president of Georgetown, Yale and Harvard. Then people give me the respect I so rightly deserve.

"Consistency, however, is the hobgoblin of little minds."

And my mind, need I say, is hardly little. When I started telling people I was president of three great universities, not all of them bowed down and worshipped my feet. Some of them sex with more than 17,000 coeds who each payed me nearly $20,000 for my services. Then I just laugh and laugh.

When you are as great as me, being a university president isn't enough. I want more. More sex, more money, more of a challenge. That's why I'm quitting this little "sideline" and going somewhere where my talents are appreciated. I'm going to become a full-time comedian. Last month I opened up for Wayne Newton at the Sands Hotel in Las Vegas. It pretty much goes without saying I brought the house down with my witticisms. Some members of the audience laughed so hard they had to be taken to the hospital. Wayne turned to me and said, "Hey buddy, you're in the wrong line of work. Why waste your time at that little school of yours? You oughta be in show biz."

Wayne was right. Why waste my talents here any longer? I had to make a decision.

Effective immediately I'm leaving this conglomerate and going into stand-up comedy. It really won't be a change of pace, since I've spent the last three years practicing my routine. The bus, bricks, Bob Chernyuck, task forces and tuition — they are all a joke. Get it? Ha ha ha ha! Now I'm ready to hit the big time.

Good-bye GW, it's been a million laughs.

Stephen Drool Tractorbutt is the grande poo-bah of GW Inc., a multicultural, multinational and multipurpose institution for the intellectually mediocre.

Stephen Drool
Tractorbutt

THE 1991 GW FAKE-IT PICTURE POLL

As an administrator, what is your favorite part about GW?

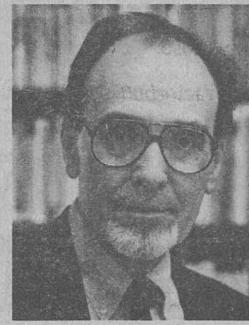

Stephen Drool
Tractorbutt
President

Money. Money. Money. Being able to say I run a multimillion dollar conglomerate.

Bobby Chernyuck
Vice President for Making Things Look Good

Being able to airbrush my picture and make all the other veeps look like greaseballs.

Roderick English
Vice President for GW's Sideline

Knowing I'm smarter than all of GW's other vice presidents.

LeNorman Weak
Office of Campus Chaos Director

Heading three different departments without actually knowing what is going on in any of them.

Lindi Donhells
Acting Dean of Imbeciles

Citing the Buckley Amendment, reading the Code of Stupid Conduct and being able to say, "no comment."

Matt Gagmeonly
Purging Director

Being able to tell students all their classes have been cancelled because their bill was 35 seconds late.

Helen Cananight
Vice President's Love Slave

Two things: 1) Pretending I'm Chernyuck. 2) Running Colonial Innundation, especially picking up hot men from New Jersey at the parent mixer.

Annie Dictionary
Dorm Director

Never growing old.

Jill Sandkasle
University Sheriff

Holding the big GW sceptre in parades and introducing Tractorbutt.

Steve Pilsky
Executive Director for Athletics and Masturbation

Knowing that this job is only a stepping stone for me to get hired at a real school.

Donald Chauffeur
American Services Director

Being quoted by the GW Fake-It and explaining how the United States invaded Kuwait.

Jerk Freeforall
National Arrest Center Dean

A cool office and writing cleverly-phrased poems to the GW Fake-It.

American Express Announces A Great New Travel Program.

Now students can get the Card and get 3 roundtrips on Continental Airlines, for only $129 or $189 each.

There's only one way to cover a lot of territory without spending a lot of money. And that's by getting the American Express® Card. It's the only card that offers an exciting new travel program exclusively for students—including three roundtrip certificates on Continental Airlines.

Just look at the map and pick the place you'd like to visit. If it's on your side of the Mississippi River, you can use a certificate to fly for only $129 roundtrip. Or, you can cross the Mississippi for $189 roundtrip.

You have your pick of more than 150 cities in the 48 contiguous states. And you can fly almost anytime—because there are no blackout dates. But you must make your reservations within 14 days of the day you leave. And the maximum stay is 7 days/6 nights and must include a Saturday night.

In addition to this great travel program, you'll also enjoy all the benefits of Cardmembership as well as other exclusive student privileges. They include a quarterly magazine filled with informative articles on summer jobs, careers, campus life. Plus valuable discounts from leading retailers.

But remember, there's only one way to get all this—and that's by getting the American Express Card. Just call us (have your bank address and account number on hand). What's more, with our special student offer, it's easier to get the Card now while you're still in school than it may ever be again.

So get the Card. And get ready to cover new territory on either side of our Great Continental Divide.

CALL 1-800-942-AMEX

If you're already a Cardmember, there's no need to call. Information about your certificates will be arriving soon.

An American Express company

Complete terms and conditions of this travel offer will arrive with your certificates. Continental Airlines alone is responsible for fulfillment of this offer. American Express assumes no liability for Continental Airlines' performance. © 1991 American Express Travel Related Services Company, Inc.

SA resolutions solve world problems, bring everlasting peace to universe

by Anasorous Rex

Fake-it Pantiliner

Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir announced today that in response to a recently-passed GW Stupid Association Resolution, he will immediately reopen Palestinian universities in the occupied territories.

Shamir apologized for the delay in the reopenings and praised the SA's efforts. "That Hank Petromol, what a man of vision, of action, of results. GW's a lucky school."

"And that Karin Just-You-Wait, now there's a woman with style and scent," he added. As a goodwill gesture, members of the Israeli Knesset presented Wait with an industrial sized bottle of Imposters-brand Poison cologne.

Shamir also congratulated SA senators Pete Beerstein and Sunni Von Bulow-Abassi for their efforts. Unfortunately Beerstein and Von Bulow-Abassi could not be reached for comment as Beerstein is helping Von Bulow-Abassi recover from a nasty bout with vomiting and loss of intestinal and bladder control.

Shamir's announcement is just another one of the amazing events brought about by SA resolutions.

According to Fake-it informant Maryann Kashimi, the United Nations declared world peace during Security Council sessions yesterday after receiving an SA resolution demanding the hostilities around the world cease. "This is what we really needed, God bless the SA," the U.N. Secretary General told Kashimi.

In another event, Iraqi despot Saddam Hussein relinquished his control and agreed to surrender to University Police — in compliance with another SA resolution. Hussein immediately agreed with the SA request, saying he feared the wrath of Petromol. Hussein only requested one addition to the resolution, that he be allowed to shack up with deposed Panamanian ruler Manuel Noriega, dart shooter Andrew Old and have frequent visits from Women's Issues Now broad Jen "climb me" Hill.

Closer to home, GW President and Dali Lama of Urban Conglomerates Steven Von Trapp and the Board of Trustees agreed to a SA resolution that will allow the freshmen who live in Thurston Hall room 713 to not only sit on the Board of Trustees, but also cast the deciding vote in all important decisions. Von Trapp said he was sorry the change did not come sooner. "It was (Petromol) who helped me see the light," he said.

Von Trapp also announced that these four freshmen will single-handedly pick new deans for all the University's schools. "I wholeheartedly agree that the New Jersey school system and Greek organizations successfully prepared the lucky person for the dean's position," Von Trapp said.

Have a big party planned and you forgot the farm animals?

We'll deliver any animal, from sheep and goats to cows and chickens, in under 69 minutes or you get $30 off. Call the IFC office at 994-7574 or stop by the Marvin Center, Room 417 for a free demonstration.

OVERSEAS CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Explore The Possibilities On Market Day

Why does a career with Chubb offer so many opportunities for students authorized to work in our European, Asian and Australian branches? The chance to work with an unexpectedly wide range of industries is one reason. Electronics, fashion, entertainment, finance, mining, international business, fine arts, broadcasting and safety are just the beginning. Since 1882, Chubb has provided insurance programs so clients around the world can succeed with peace of mind. To help us succeed, we hire bright people with good interpersonal skills, business acumen, diverse backgrounds, the ability to negotiate and the desire to be part of a team.

Careers at Chubb begin overseas with our outstanding training program. On-the-job training in a U.S. branch prepares new employees to return overseas and continue training in their local Chubb office.

For more information, visit table 11b during Market Day. Also, contact your Career and Cooperative Education Center. Chubb Group of Insurance Companies. Warren, New Jersey 07061.

CHUBB

Group of Insurance Companies.

Don't call the Student Escort Service!

It is run by men and men are evil. Instead call WIN at 994-7554, where a woman will walk you home. It may not be as safe, but at least you won't have to walk with a disgusting man. Yuck!

KAPPA ALPHA ORDER

seeks

KAs attending GWU

Join the fellowship of George Mason and Maryland Undergraduates and the National Capital Alumni Chapter for information call

Randy Scholze - (703) 696-1394
Gary Scott - (202) 619-7279

We Look Forward to Hearing From You!

NEED EYE CARE?

Ray and Souryal, M.D.S., P.C. Ophthalmologists
Dr. Souryal - Assistant Professor at G.W.U.

Welcomes you to our well established eye care family for over 20 years.

Everything you need in just one place:

- complete eye exam
- contact lenses
- eye glasses, great selection of eye wear
- optical services
- within walking distance

2112 F St., NW - Suite 804
Hours: Mon. - Fri. 9 - 5
Sat. 9 - 12

(202) 331 - 1754

Mastercard

LSAT
GMAT
GRE

Stanley H. Kaplan

Take Kaplan Or Take Your Chances

"Don't Be A Fool on the June Exams!"

Washington, DC
(202) 244-1456

No.VA
(703) 352-TEST

Bethesda
(301) 770-3444

Ohmigwad, dahling! How to get that mahvelous 'GW Look'

by Debbie Stacy Suzie Finkelbaum, Ph.D.

She's got style, she's got poise and she's got really big hair. Today's GW woman is brighter and better than ever before, learning to read in remedial classes, active in Greek life, a regular customer at Benetton and a firm believer in that multipurpose gadget — the butterfly hair clip. For those of you losers who haven't yet figured out how to fit in with these popular people here at GW, The GW Fake-It is thrilled to present our handy fashion circular, filled with makeup and beauty ideas.

lined with makeup and beauty ideas. What does every GW woman want from life? Money, power and total acceptance into the sorority of her choice, of course. It's not easy to attain such social success, however — it takes a wardrobe of absolutely killer Champion sweatshirts, a membership at the best tanning salon in the city and your very own American Express Gold Card to reserve yourself a space on the guest lists of the rich and tacky.

Let's start out with the face and hair. Everybody knows that one of the first places a guy looks when he's checking you out is your face, and even if you've got that ultimate size-six waistline, if you go out without the eyeliner — you're history. Foundation, coverup, tan-colored face powder, blush (two shades), eyeliner, eyeshadow (three colors), mascara, lipliner, lipstick and lipgloss are the bare minimum for your early-morning makeup routine.

Of course, moisturizing creams and lotions, applied before, during and after the daily makeup service, are very important to a woman's looks. Clinique is the only brand of premium makeup good enough for the true GW woman, as the company specializes in reincarnating skin that has been over-broiled in the Flaridah sun. It also comes in a cute pale green container and is expensive, so you look like a value-conscious, environmentally-sound human to the rest of the Market Square crowd.

Short hair is definitely out this season among the beauty queens and popular people of GW. Long hair, whether permanent-waved or left straight, is the only way to go. Important beauty tip: Do not trim your hair when the ends split and become scraggly, as this wild, overgrown look is what all men consider sexy. Frosting and blond highlights, perennial favorites regardless of your hair's natural color, are also options available in the wide world of hair care.

While the best salons for this type of delicate work are generally found in the New York metropolitan area, concentrated around Bloomfield, New Jersey and Smithtown, Long Island, you can also get a great new style by going to Schlubbles Axe-Job Palace on K Street. The store specializes in perms and frosting, and has won numerous awards for its generous practice of only hiring mentally-slow or seeing-impaired persons.

Don't forget that whatever style you

photos by Swear-ah Blondie

select must look cute when thrown up in a butterfly clip or in one of those puffy fabric scrunchy things. Scrunchies are sold on every street corner in the District's business sector and are available in all fashion colors. Because they are so reasonably priced, there's no reason for a girl not to have one to match every outfit. Sporty and versatile, smart manufacturers have even started tinting the scrunchies to match the exact dyes used in Champion sweatshirts. Lace, polka dots and floral patterns are also available for the more adventurous.

Stlylish activewear, designed especially for that on-the-go GW woman, has become increasingly accepted into mainstream fashion. Whereas the sweatsuit used to be out of place anywhere but in the Smith Center, designers have adapted the comfortable style and created a look that can be found in every cool closet on campus and in the Dakota and the Winston House: a brightly-colored Champion sweatshirt, layered over a white tank-top and a pair of tight black leggings. wear of choice among the stylish set here at GW.

Black cotton or spandex leggings have a wonderful slenderizing effect, even on the chunkiest woman. Gone are your fears about fat kneecaps and jiggling beer-hips, because the oversized Champion can be pulled down to the mid-thigh, or even knee level, and still remain stylish. The sweatshirt is practical for aerobics class, trendy-looking under a blazer and perfect for work with a scarf thrown around the neck, making the Champion a true all-purpose item.

purpose item. For the feet, you really only have two options: perpetually-shiny white leather Keds or a pair of shoe-style cowboy boots. Tretorn sneakers, popular a few years back when worn with the laces untied, are now the ultimate fashion faux-pas. Along with penny loafers (for prep school nerds) and Dr. Martens boots (only worn by scary punk boys and girls), Tretorns are to be avoided at all costs. Keds, worn with HUGE pushed-down white socks, are the footwear of choice among the stylish set here at GW.

We've got the clothes taken care of, now let's discuss accessories. Dark sunglasses with mock-tortoise rims are a fashion staple during these summer months and during the winter months when they should be worn after vacation to emphasize that you went somewhere lavish and tropical for break. Backpacks and other academic-looking receptacles the GW Fashion Police, who patrol the Market Square area — in their sorority letters — at noon on weekdays.

letters — at noon on weekdays. And as the saying does, you're never fully dressed without a Marlboro Light cigarette butt hanging between yourouting lips. Very sophisticated.

Offering suggestions about how to get that 'GW look,' Maryann Kashimi, fashion coordinator for the STD sorority, recommends that women douse themselves liberally with perfume.

"I think that the best way to entrench yourself in the University community is to conform to standards of dressing and behavior," she said.

It's not easy being a leader in the community, a figure that an entire university looks up to with reverence. The radiating beauty of such a woman, with her diet Coke or Tab in hand, a wad of gum crackling between her lips and the light flowing through her very big hair, is unquestionable. Beautiful, intelligent and always highly articulate, the ideal GW woman will always be a treasured part of our GW environment.

FARTS & CREATURES

Top GW personalities bare all for PH-sponsored exhibit

by Pussy Galore

To keep up with its tradition of fine, upstanding programming that appeals to the whole open-minded GW community, the GW Penis Horde is sponsoring a controversial art exhibit in the Marvin Center's Grand unused-Ballroom.

The exhibit, which features highly erotic photographs of a select handful of University administrators, is scheduled to draw colossal crowds — even a few ever-present Young White Boys for Fascism turned out to protest because the Penis Horde is using leftover Shitty Association funds to pay for the show. Penis Horde head slut, Saint Mary Canfeely, said she was rather upset that the PH wanted to run the show but said her over-sexed, under-indulged staff was just chomping at the bit to set up the exhibit.

"Those horny little bastards were dyin' to do it," she exclaimed. "You know, I'm such a prissy virgin, I would never agree to do this. We do everything democratically, and besides, the rest of the horde threatened to make me sleep with Ducky Kamonkey if I did not sign on to this program."

Penis Horde-elect, Fret Ballswell, said he had no personal objections to the exhibit. "As long as this program gets a Fake-It editorial, I don't give a shit. And I'm real happy my young friends from YAF will be on hand to make my life a living hell," Ballswell told the Fake-It that he was scheduled to work at the exhibit the entire day — leaving his American cheese wrappers everywhere and allotting breaks to himself every 30 minutes so he could beat off. "Whooeeeeee, them pictures are sure nasty, almost as nasty as the naked pictures of Jon Yeah-god that Kat Eatie has hanging up in her office," Ballswell exclaimed.

The pictures — oh my goodness! — are downright tasteless. In fact, they border on the obscene, but what do you expect from a bunch of low class losers like the folks in high places at GW?

Upon entering the exhibit, the viewer is struck by a wall-size visage of the Colonials version of Mr. Clean — Spike Jarvis — who is suggestively removing his uniform, revealing a smashing bod that comes from "working out" with the basketball team. Critics argue that the actual model might have been cager stud, Elvis McSlappin', but the lack of body hair on the image is revealingly Jarvis-like.

Another crowd-teaser at the show is the stunningly slutty portrait of GW's own Sueme Cambellsoup. The black-and-white photograph is representative of the little tart's true colors — boring, boring, boring. When questioned about her decision to include herself in the exhibit, Cambellsoup said, "Even though I don't have a position anymore, I can't say anything, but at least now I get my chance to reveal everything.

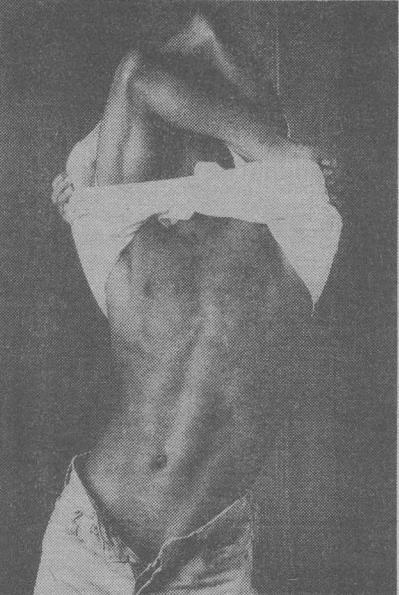

Besides, I'm so damned taken up by all those 'no comments' I gave the Fake-It, that I feel the need to vent some of my frustrations — this was simply an appropriate outlet for a girl like me."

There are some other real gems in the show, including a particularly lovely shot of Athletics and Masturbation Head Dude, Stevie-boy Bill-me, posing in an eyebrow-raising manner with a tennis racket. (Don't worry, those jock jerks never read the arts section, so they'll never know what I write about them.)

Of course, the highlight of the exhibit is a divine photograph of Vice Prez for Student Spurt Services, Bobby-boy Churncrack, lounging back on one of the couches in Rice Hall. "Well, I lost a lot of weight, and my wife says it's like making love to a new man," he revealed. "So, I just wanted the whole student body to appreciate my new look like she does." Churncrack said he even bought a copy for his office because he was so proud of his physique. "I'm thinking of printing, signing and selling them in the bookstore," he said. "They'd make such nice additions for the rooms in Thurston Hall, as long as they don't call me at midnight asking for autographs, I won't mind."

Now, some GW personalities are regrettably missing from the show, namely President Seepin' Drool Tractorbutt. The photographers from Bye, Bye George!, who took the photos, said Tractorbutt did not have time to pose for the photos — thus, the community will have to do without (not that we aren't used to that). But, all in all, the show will be a definite hit for GW's bored students. Don't forget to pick up a few postcard shots of your favorite administrator — a keepsake from good ol' GW you will treasure forever.

THE RONKIN
EDUCATIONAL GROUP

From the home office in Rm. 433...

From the home office in room 433 of the Marlin Center, we surveyed GW seniors to find out the top ten things GW seniors do NOT want GW President Steaming Jowels Tractorbutt to do at graduation.

10. Wear purple spandex tights.
9. Bring Francine.
8. Pretend he cares.
7. Quote Nietzsche.
6. Meet their parents.
5. Replace the keynote speaker.
4. Wear the blue robe that makes him look like a smurf.
3. Speak.
2. Play with his nose.
1. Show up.

total test preparation

LSAT / GRE / GMAT

Ask about our free diagnostic tests and our programs. Call us at:

(202) 659-1500

825 21st Street, NW
Washington, DC 20006
(next to Tower Records)

Alone? Lonely? Naked? Horny? Desperate? Me, too!
 I'm a eligible, healthy, hunk waiting for calls from guys and gals.
 Call Frank anytime of the day or night. My office number is 994-7100, but you can talk to me in the privacy of my own room at 994-2237. The cost is $490 per credit hour, Vista and Masturbater cards accepted. For an extra special time ask to talk with my roommates, too!

TRANSITIONS

Free workshops and dinner for student organizational officers and leaders.

Also, a great opportunity to network.

* April 8 from 4-8pm in Marvin Center 413 *

Register by calling 994-6555 by April 4.

Campus Activities
 a department of the Office of Campus Life

MAKING YOUR TRANSITION A SMOOTH ONE

G.W. UNDERGRADUATES

Want to know as early as your junior year that you'll be admitted to medical school?

EARLY SELECTION PROGRAM

Enjoy the opportunity to:

- develop and pursue a rigorous and exciting curriculum
- get the most out of your junior and senior years
- take medical school electives

FOR INFORMATION CONTACT:

Medical School Admissions

Ross Hall, Room 615
 23rd & I Streets
 994 - 3506

Health guru and senator reunite after 21 years

by General Anesthesia and
 Pat Rice Patty

Hatchet Dominatrixes

After 21 years of searching, Stupid Association Senator Richie Simmons found his long lost father, the Emperor of Exercise, Sir Sweat Richard Simmons.

"I was getting an autographed copy of Deal-a-Meal, and there he was, my pop," Simmons said. "Our eyes met and suddenly I felt that bond between a boy and his father. It was beautiful."

Simmons said he hit the diet trail right after little Richie was born. He said he knew little Richie would grow up to do great things.

"But never, in my wildest dreams, did I ever imagine that my very own son would make it into the high ranks in the SA," Simmons said. "My little Richard, an SA senator," he said.

Richie said he is leaving the SA to join his father in his quest to bring people together. "Everything dad does will be checked with me first. If I don't like it, dad won't do it," Richie said.

Little Richard also said he will be sweatin' to the oldies in the Caribbean Student Association from 9 to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. "Now instead of just sitting in there, I'll actually be doing something," he said.

Richie noted that he is applying for membership to the Sigma Delta Chi journalism society since he is so fond of their membership charter. "After I read the $\Sigma\Delta X$ charter, I knew I had found my calling. Every day journalists of questionable integrity violate this charter. It is my duty to interpret and enforce these rules. I thank God for making me so smart."

In addition to his duties as $\Sigma\Delta X$ charter enforcer, Richie will also be given an honorary position on every editorial board in the country. Fake-It editor-in-chief Pat Rice Rushenberg said she could not wait to welcome Richie to her organization.

"It took Richie's knowledgeable insight and knowledge of the journalism business to point out our flaws. I mean who would have thought prior-review could be so much fun. Golly, we're lucky to have him aboard," Rushenberg said. She added that she was particularly fond of Richie's suave speaking ability that makes insignificant points sound important.

Current $\Sigma\Delta X$ President John Goldfarb Please Come Home said he is planning to relinquish his duties to Richie. "Only once in a blue moon does someone of such balanced judgment and integrity exist," he said. Goldfarb Please Come Home said he hoped Richie will eventually rule the world of journalism. "Here's a guy who knows what he's talking about," he said.

News panties

Anthony Kirshfield passed out in class yesterday after losing three months of sleep. In a breathy whisper he managed to say, "I said I wouldn't sleep until my opinion piece was reprinted. I want that 'Edit At Will' punshhhh. . ."

IFC President-elect Errand Quickto-sin was strangled by a monkey while making his 10,234th peanut butter and jelly sandwich.

GW sophomore TammyFae Wilyams was denied acceptance to Howard University last Tuesday. When asked why she didn't get in, she said, "GW students weren't praying hard enough."

Colic Democrap Chairman Jony Alterboy was hit by a bus Monday night and hurt his arm. He wanted the GW Fake-it to do a full feature on the incident.

• • •

GW student Liz "Nice Rack" Roomis was sighted walking around Washington Circle when a jogger ran past her. "Ooooh, look at that big cock," Roomis said. The jogger reportedly stopped and said, "Having had a large penis since puberty, I find it incredibly sexist that you would comment that I'm better hung than a horse. Sometimes I wish I had an electric cattle prod."

GREATEST PERM SALE! Premier Perm and Relaxer Touch-up

NEW LOWER SALE PRICE!
$29*
 Reg. $50
 COMPLETE
 Includes:
 • Shampoo • Haircut
 • Conditioner • Blowdry
 • Curling Iron Finish
 *Prices slightly higher for long hair and Designer Perm Wraps

THE HAIR CUTTERY

Check the Yellow Pages for the salon near you

President eliminates education

Tractorbutt's 'Conglomerate World' to end any and all learning at GW

by Al Smackmyroll

Resident Crack Addict

GW President Stephen Drool Tractorbutt announced his plans to the GW Bored ol' Crustees to turn GW into "Conglomerate World," a new improved campus completely devoid of the threat of education.

Commenting after the meeting, Tractorbutt said, "When people would ask me what I do, I used to say I pretend to be president of a lame school in D.C. Now I can finally say I run a huge conglomerate complete with shitty health facilities, shitty restaurants, a shitty sports complex, an especially shitty library and, yes, on the side we do rip off a few stupid kids by pretending to give them an education." He added he plans to get rid of all educational facilities by the end of the year. "I wouldn't want to educate anyone by mistake," he said.

Among the new facilities being built at "Conglomerate World" is the Troll Arena, a small theater designed for naked dwarf tossing. "Well you know, I look like a troll, and I love tossing naked dwarfs, so this just seemed a great idea," Tractorbutt said.

Next to the Troll Arena will be the National Center for Ignorant JAPs Who are Willing to Pay Through the Nose for an Education. "This is my philanthropy project," Tractorbutt said. "There are some assholes in this world who think I should stop ripping off greater Long Island and New Jersey by pretending to educate these kids. So what am I doing? I'm not pretending to educate anyone, I'm just making these kids think they're sick and charging them up the Kuester for a little of Stevie Drool's love potion cure all."

The center will replace the GW Medical Center. "Screw those homeless poor people we keep treating for free. If I'm gonna help anyone, I'm gonna help myself," Tractorbutt said.

Among Tractorbutt's plans is a blueprint of a massive statue of himself to be placed in the middle of the quad. The statue will stand 300 feet high and is 400 feet in diameter, a perfect resemblance of the man himself. "I'm especially proud of this one," Tractorbutt said. "For once people won't have to stare only at that phallic-looking thing on the Mall, now they can stare at my body forever immortalized in stone."

Other plans Tractorbutt has in mind include Yaglou's, a new restaurant on the fifth floor of the Marlin Center specializing in serving whole sides of cattle. He will also establish Webster's, a small cafe that serves 200-year-old coffee.

Fake-It correspondent Maryann Kashimi said she knows of the plans, and they are all true. "I'm really excited about this," Tractorbutt said. "I can't wait to finally get my way, this whole idea has me in a whirl."

Broads from BIN strut their stuff

Happy homemaker Mound and hot mama Hazey take top awards

by A Guy in Yellow

Who Listpsts a Lot

After a few days of sthurf, sthex and sthun, the chicks from GW's Broad's Issues Now showed off some of their feminine astsets this weekend at the First Annual GW Hot Babes Fashion Show and Beauty Contest in Atlantic City, N.J.

BIN man-tamer Marge Hazey, on the strength of a first place win in the evening gown competition in which she wore a sexy, hot-pink, see-through and oh-so, sparsely sequined Bob Mackie winner, won the title of 1991 Hot Babe.

Hazey said she thinks all the GW dames should bare more skin and wink flirtatiously at any man who passes by. Hazey also wanted to let all the chicks out there know they should not wear underwear, so as to bag more hunks.

Any other beauty tips Marge? "Just one word girls, Spandex, lots of Spandex."

That Weird Girl Who Wears John Lennon Glasses won the swimsuit competition, going topless and sporting a thong made of dental floss. That Weird Girl Who Wears John Lennon Glasses was disqualified, though, after it was discovered that she had been 'doin' the nasty' with at least six of the 10 judges the night before. Hot Babe rules specifically state that at least 75 percent of the judges must be involved for it to be legal.

GW President and Hot Babe judge Stephen Fool Tractorbutt could not be reached for comment after apparently being too tired from "a long night,"

White House sources said.

The Hottest and Happiest Homemaker competition was won by Jennifer "Round" Mound. Mound was cited for great cooking, especially meat loaf, her ability to adjust the hems on her 12 children's pants and complete submission to men. Mound not only promptly brought slippers to her man, but to anyone with who asked. "I'm at every man's beck and call," she said.

Hazey and That Weird Girl Who Wears John Lennon Glasses both expressed jealousy at Mound. "I just hope I find a man to give my life purpose and make my existence complete. Without a man to show me what to do I'll be lost, like a dog or a sheep," Wei Girl said.

Please do not recycle this newspaper or anything else!

"What A Great Experience!"

CHILE • FRANCE • ITALY • SPAIN

Learning the Language.
Meeting People. Coming face to face with history, art and architecture, culture, food and fun.
UNIVERSITY STUDIES ABROAD CONSORTIUM...
Small classes. Personal attention. Fully accredited - courses transfer to your school. We provide great classes in intensive language, history, anthropology, art, business, economics, political science... Organized field trips and more. You provide the enthusiasm.

University Studies
Abroad Consortium
Library/322
University of Nevada
Reno, Nevada 89557-0093
(702) 784-6569

GW arms tour bus to stop campus crime

by John Sununu

Hatchet crow eater

University Police unveiled plans to build a new and improved armed security tourbus to help reduce crime on campus. Equipped with machine guns, a 16-inch howitzer and surface to air missiles, this multipurpose vehicle will be a tourbus by day and armored assault vehicle by night, according to the University Police Director Curtis Badd.

Vice President for Student and Academic Armamanets Bob "Ultra-slimfast" Chernyuck called it the "mother of all tourbusses" and said, "Nobody will screw with a GW student when this bad boy is roaming the campus. Any jerk-water school can have campus security, patrol cars and an escort service. But those things are for pussies. Only armed vehicles will keep this campus safe."

"We're very excited about the project," said Enormous Waste, contracting director for Ronald McDonald Douglas and father of GW Publicity Wench Scaren Waste. "Daddy warbucks" as Scaren calls him, estimated the cost of the project to be $73.2 million. "Armed busses ain't cheap,"

Waste said, adding, "Frankly I need the money to keep Scaren happy."

Members of Broad's Issues Now and the Progresso Soup Union quickly condemned the armored bus. PSU Granola-head Rad Seagull called it "phallic" and "a metaphor for homophobic, sexist and racist cannibalism."

When asked to take a stand on the issue, GW Stupid Association President-elect Kool Farmberry declined, saying he would be resigning as SA president because the job was not what he had in mind. "The SA always fell short on my list of priorities," he said.

Former SA president and Tractorbutt's administrative kiss ass-intern-for-life John David Morris-the-Cat said, "The bus is the greatest idea at the greatest university in the world. An armed bus. What will these crazy guys think up next? You gotta love it. You gotta want it."

GW President Stephen Blow Tractorbutt could not be reached for comment, but probably would not have had any informed or analytic commentary to add anyway.

FRANCO & BERNARD HAIR STUDIO

1747 PENN AVE. 452-8286

$15 OFF PERM AND HIGHLIGHTS

$5 OFF HAIRCUT

+ PAUL MITCHELL GIFT

OFFER GOOD WITH BOBBIE AND JOSE THROUGH MAY 21 ST

PAUL MITCHELL

Lynelle Boutique

!!!SPRING EXTRAVAGANZA SALE!!!

HURRY for best selection of formals, accessories, cosmetics at unbeatable prices!!!

FREE MAKEOVER FOR GW STUDENTS (by appt.)

$15 Off!

Purchase over $90

$25 Off!

Purchase over $150

$50 Off!

Purchase over $300

$100 Off

Purchase over $550

Applicable on Regular Priced Merchandise only. Must present this AD

Offer expires April 30

1800 M Street, N.W. (entrance on 18th Street) Phone (202) 223-4222

Regular Store Hours: Mon - Fri: 10 - 6. Thursday 'til 8. Saturday 11 - 4

Major Credit Cards Honored

Free Layaway Plan

Two Week Course
FREE Placement Service

BARTENDING

Professional Bartending School
(703) 841-9700

U.S. Parcel & Copy Center
Our Copying prices are the lowest!

Copy Prices

01 - 100 Copies - 4 cents/copy

101+ Copies - 3 cents/copy

UPS-FAX SERVICE-Packaging Service-Private Mailbox Rental $10 per month

2100 Pennsylvania Ave., N.W.

(corner of 21st & Penn. Ave.)

(202) 223-6661

"One Stop for the Total Image"

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

MONDAY, APRIL 1 THRU SUNDAY, APRIL 7TH

Campus Highlights submissions for the upcoming week must be turned in to the GW Information Center (Marvin Center, 1st floor) no later than the preceding Wednesday at noon.

MONDAY, APRIL 1

• Brown Bag Lunch Speaker. Marvin Center 402-404, noon-1:30pm. Dean East, ESIA: "Foreign Policy-Making in the Post-Cold War World." Info: 994-6864.

• International Affairs Speaker. Marvin Center 405, 5:30-7pm. Mr. Jacques de Groot, Exec. Dir. of the International Monetary Fund. Info: 994-6864.

• Israeli Dancing. Marvin Center 402-406, 7-10pm. Demonstration & Instruction of Israeli Folk dances by Kevin Avner & Sandy Weiss. Refreshments will be served. Info: 994-6864.

• The World at Your Doorstep, Part I. Strong Hall Lounge, 5-7pm. Strong Hall invites you to partake of international cuisine & culture with some surprise international guests. Info: 994-6864.

• Keynote Panel Discussion. Marvin Center Ballroom, 8pm. Topic will be "The Post Cold War World." Moderator - Dean Maurice East, ESIA. Panel: Niukwai Akueteh, Director of Research and Education at Trans Africa, James Phillips, Deputy Director of Foreign Policy Studies at the Heritage Foundation, Dr Dae Kim, Senior Trade Analyst at the Korean Foreign Trade Association, Dorrell Phillip Charles, University of Maryland, Baltimore, Ambassador Clovis Maksoud, Former Arab League Ambassador to the United Nations. Info: 994-6864.

TUESDAY, APRIL 2

• Brown Bag Lunch Speaker. Marvin Center 402-404, noon-1:30pm. Dorothy Moore, Education Dept. Topic is "Cross-Cultural Communication: An Imperative for the 21st Century." Info: 994-6864.

• The World at Your Doorstep, Part II. Strong Hall Lounge, 5-7pm. See listing for Part I, Monday, April 1.

International Affairs Society. Stuart Hall 108, 6pm. Election of new officers, planning for fall events. Open to all GW undergraduates. Info: 994-7572.

• Video Presentation: Gian Franco Ferre. Marvin Center, 402-404, 6-7pm. Fashion Presentation. Info: 994-6864.

Bread & the Word. 609 21st St., NW, 6-8pm. Weekly supper fellowship. Ecumenical Christian Ministry. Info: 676-6434.

• Israel-Arab Relations: The Big Power Conflict in the Middle East. Marvin Center 413-415, 8-10pm. John F. Rothmann, Former President of the North Pacific Region of the Zionist Organization of America. Info: 994-6864.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3

• International Market Day. Gelman Library Quad, 11am-3pm. Rain-site: Marvin Center 4th floor. Displays from over 25 international & US student groups plus university departments, featuring ethnic cuisine, cultural information & craft exhibits, study abroad & overseas work opportunities. Info: 9940-6864.

Brown Bag & the Bible. 2131 G St., NW, noon-12:50pm. Weekly Bible study. Campus Ministries. Info: 676-6434.

• Brown Bag Lunch Speaker. Marvin Center 404-406, noon-1:30pm. Professor Henry Nau, ESIA - "America's Decline, EC's Ascent: Myth or Reality?" Info: 994-6864.

Dimock Gallery Opening. Lisner Auditorium, 5-7pm. By invitation only. Info: 994-7091.

• The World at Your Door Step, Part III. Strong Hall Lounge, 5-7pm. See listing for Part I, Monday April 1.

Lesbian & Gay People's Alliance Bisexual Students Network. 2131 G St., NW, 7:45-9pm. Open to all D.C. college students. Info: 994-7590.

• Japanese-American Relations in the 1990's. Marvin Center Ballroom, 8-9pm. Round table discussion with Professor Thayer, John Hopkins University specialist in Japanese Affairs, Professor Gaston Sigur, ESIA, Mr. Naito Yoriyoshi, Bureau Chief of Asahi-Shinbun Newspaper. Info: 994-6864.

Residence Hall Association Weekly Meeting. Marvin Center 401, 9pm. Info: 994-8319.

THURSDAY, APRIL 4

• Brown Bag Lunch Speaker. Marvin Center 404-406, noon-1:30pm. Ambassador Ronald Palmer, ESIA - "Trends in the Development of Multi-Partyism in Africa." Info: 994-6864.

• ISS Coffee Hour. Bldg. D, 4-7pm. Co-sponsored by International Services Office & Multicultural Student Services Center. Info: 994-6864.

• International Perspectives Art Show. Marvin Center, Colonnade Art Gallery, 5-7pm. Come view international art & broaden your cultural horizons. Info: 994-6864.

• Video Presentation: Yves St. Laurent. Marvin Center 413-415, 6-8pm. Fashion Presentation. Info: 994-6864.

• "The Last Emperor". Funger 103, 8 & 10:30pm. $1 w/GWID, $2 all others. Sponsored by Program Board, Info: 994-7313.

• Evening Address. Marvin Center 404-406, 8-10pm. Speaker Melvin P. Foote of AFRICARE - "The Role of African-Americans in Third World Development." Info: 994-6864.

Passover. Marvin Center 403, 7:30pm. Speaker Peter Rice from Jews for Jesus. Sponsored by GW Christian Fellowship. Info: 676-2350.

Lesbian & Gay People's Alliance Weekly Discussion Group. 2131 G St., NW, 7:45-9pm. Info: 994-7590.

Moliere's "The Learned Ladies." Marvin Center Theatre, 8pm. $5 students & senior citizens, $8 all others. Info: 994-8072 (Judy Annis).

FRIDAY, APRIL 5

• Brown Bag Lunch Series. Marvin Center 403-405, noon-1:30pm. Professor Hiltebeitel, Religion Dept., GW - "Classical & Folk Hinduism: Eunuch & Fire Walkers." Info: 994-6864.

• Video Presentation. Marvin Center 413-414, 4:30-6:30pm. Fashion presentation of Hermes. Info: 994-6864.

Moliere's "The Learned Ladies." Marvin Center Theatre, 8pm. See listing for Thursday, April 4.

• Beyond the Gulf War: Finding the Missing Peace. Marvin Center 404-406, 8-10pm. Israeli-Palestine discussion with two moderating professors. Opposing views will be followed by a question & answer session. More details TBA. Info: 994-6864.

SATURDAY, APRIL 6

Moliere's "The Learned Ladies." Marvin Center Theatre, 2pm & 8pm. See listing for Thursday, April 4.

• International Students' Society 59th Annual Embassy Dinner. Marvin Center Market Square, 7pm-1am. This renowned event includes buffet dinner of international cuisine, fashion show, cash bar, international DJ and dancing. For tickets & info: 994-6864.

Medical School Follies. Lisner Auditorium, 7:30pm. Sponsored by GW School of Medicine. Info: 994-3501.

SUNDAY, APRIL 7

Moliere's "The Learned Ladies." Marvin Center Theatre, 2pm & 8pm. See listing for Thursday, April 4.

The Bulgarian State Female Choir. Lisner Auditorium, 8pm. Presented by GW Concert Series. $10 w/GW student ID, $17 w/all other GW ID, $20 all others. Discount tickets available only at Newsstand! All others available at Ticketron Outlets and Phonecharge (202/432-0200). Info: 994-1500.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. is Offering an Academic Scholarship! To obtain more information & application, please stop by the DSQ office, located at 2127 G St., NW, 203, (bldg HH). Info: 994-6590 or 994-8579 (Toni).

CCEW Spring Session Deadline. Last day to register is April 9, 1991. Classes start April 15. You may register until then from 9am-5:30pm, at CCEW office, Academic Center T409. Certificate courses & workshops include information systems, management, desktop publishing, publications, lobbying, legal assistant. Info: 994-7036.

CARE D.C. Hunger Clean-up! April 13, 10am-1pm. Volunteers & team leaders to organize volunteers are needed to participate in a fundraising event as well as cleaning up shelters for the day. Location to be determined. Info: 994-7221.

Coming to Lisner Auditorium

"The Hippest Show on Earth...Don't Miss It"

- Los Angeles Weekly

"It's the Universal Language."

- Los Angeles Times

LE MYSTERE DES VOIX BULGARES

THE BULGARIAN STATE FEMALE VOCAL CHOIR
Sunday April 7, 8pm

Join some of America's best talkers for an evening of prose, verse and outright lies...

Ray Hicks ~ Legendary Appalachian Storyteller

Bob Murphy ~ Tall Tales from Texas

Paul Zarzyski ~ Cowboy Poet

Rep. Mike Synar (D-OK) ~ Special Capitol Hill Guest

Friday April 12, 8pm

Salute to Duke Ellington conducted by Mercer Ellington

Celebrate Duke Ellington Month!
Friday April 26, 8pm

The program will include some of the Duke's rarely heard compositions.

Tickets on sale now at the Marvin Center Newsstand and all TicketCenter outlets. Students $10 for best available seats and GW ID discounts at the Marvin Center.

The University Series
1990 - 1991

"Interactive Multimedia: Teaching in the 21st Century." May 8, Academic Center T404, 1-3 pm. Conference will feature an expert panel on technology in teaching & research. Applications of multimedia in the humanities, sciences & medicine will be demonstrated. $15/person (includes lunch). GW Television. Info: 994-8233 (Arlene Polinsky).

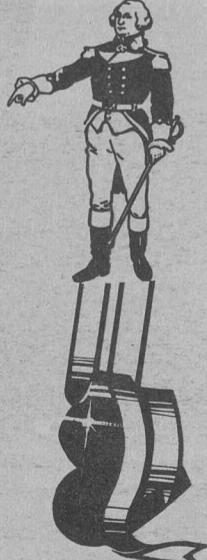

Noon Aerobics. Smith Center Main Arena. Monday-Friday, now until May 3, noon-1pm. Free with valid university ID. Open to all university members. Sponsored by Recreational Sports. Info: 994-6251.

Evening Aerobics. Smith Center Main Arena. Tuesday-Friday, until May 3, 5:30-6:30pm. Free with valid university ID. Open to all University members. Sponsored by Recreational Sports. Info: 994-6251.

WRTV Radio is looking for students interested in working on its news & general staff. 81220th St., (bldg. YY), Monday-Friday, 10am-7pm. Info: 994-0026.

The Peer Tutoring Service is recruiting tutors, re-activating tutors, & accepting tutees, in the Dean of Students Office, Rice Hall 401. Info: 994-1478.

"The Big To Do!" reaches an audience of over 6,000 each month. Take advantage of this opportunity to publicize your event for FREE! There will be no issue for May. A summer issue covering events from Mid-May to August will be produced at the start of Summer Session I. The deadline for summer submissions is April 15. For more information contact GW Info Center, 994-GWGW.

Bricks not books

by Jane Pauley Wannabe
Hatchet Honey

Members of last semester's "books not bricks" campaign retracted their previous opposition of the University's "identabrick" program and announced their full support of the project.

"I always loved the bricks," said Joy "corn on the" Cob. "I just love to protest. It gives me a chance to break in my new fanny packs." Cob gained notoriety during last semester's protest for her emphatic, clodlike marching techniques and clever, remedial rhymes during the event.

Another professional protestor, Progresso Soup Union's Elizabeth Canker, said she too was behind the brick program. Canker is rumored to be the secret housewife of Young American's for Fascism member Martian Schlitz. "PSU members know they have to act like everything is a conspiracy," she said. "Hell, if people only knew — I love having the CIA on campus." Recently, Canker announced she will begin an internship with Sen. Jesse Helms (R-N.C.)

Danish Hollindaise, who spearheaded the protest, said she hopes GW will pave the entire quad and inscribe the area with her name. "I'm a lot of talk, though I did enjoy making those little paper bricks," Hollindaise said. "Like Joy, I love the bricks — to hell with grass and trees. Pave, pave, pave."

In fact, Hollindaise said the protest was staged in an effort to get into GW President Stefan Joey Traction's office. "He'd been ignoring me . . . I hadn't received a letter from him in more than a week."

Hollindaise also said she is throwing her support behind campus-wide use of styrofoam containers.

Davey Naaanz, being of such high moral integrity, said he would not comment on the brick situation. Currently, Naaanz is battling three recurring cow licks.

Cob, Canker and Hollindaise agreed that the "books not bricks" protest shouldn't have been taken so seriously. "Everyone knows the library is beyond help," Canker said.

Chick's Issues Now member Jenny Mill said she was pleased with Cob, Canker and Hollindaise's decision to change their position on the bricks. "Last semester the protestors acted irresponsibly. It is their duty to do whatever I want and not to dare represent their own views," she said. Mill also recommended that all GW students immediately enroll in brick prejudice reduction training quicker than Fake-It editorials editor Crow Corelone could say "John Sununu."

Madge "my people call it" Maize could not be reached for comment.

SA candidate sold sex for votes; Pecker claims 'I had no choice'

by Laughing Hyena

The Cute One

Shitty Association's Executive Vermin Dave Pecker sold sex to voters during this year's SA election, according to Marty Shit-For-Brains Nicklestein.

In order to obtain a high number of votes, Pecker sold his body for three weeks before the election.

"Yeah, so what if I did. I'm a slimy weasel and everyone knows it. The only reason I won was because John Big-Teeth Gnatler was selling sex for votes too," Pecker said.

According to eyewitness Maryann Kashimi, Pecker took young, vulnerable voters to the double decker bus and had his way with them.

"I saw it with my own two eyes," Kashimi said, "and I would never tell a lie."

Kashimi added that Pecker probably did this to increase awareness about how stupid and oblivious the Joke Elections Committee really is.

"This is just despicable. I knew that guy was crooked. To think that I ran in the same election as that corrupt swindler makes me cringe," Scary Frank, a fellow candidate, said.

"This is extremely immoral. Something has to be done," Nicklestein said, "but right now we're concentrating on more important things like making sure the poll watchers can see over every voter's shoulder and giving them absolutely no privacy whatsoever."

Carin About-Her-Weight said she was shocked that Pecker would stoop to something so low. "I can't believe Dave would do something like that. He's such an integral part of the Shitty Association, a respectable man and an honest Joe. Plus, he even likes my perfume," About-Her-Weight said.

"The funny thing about this," Nicklestein said, "is that the majority of people who voted for Pecker were men."

"Yeah, I sold sex to men," Pecker said. "So what? What are ya gonna do about it, get the JEC to fine me? Shit-for-Brains is a putz. Hal!"

Kashimi said she saw Young American Freak Snot Louse going to the bus five or six times.

"So what if I slept with Dave, he's a Republican and that's all that matters," Louse said.

Many "Philanges" Jimenez said he visited with Dave nightly. "He gives great foot," Jimenez said.

Billy Baloney, Scary's campaign manager, said he was appalled at Pecker's campaign tactic. "Cheating is disgusting, especially when you get caught! I mean, look at me, I sent fliers to every dorm — yes, RHA, D-O-R-M! And no one ever knew it was me," he said.

Baloney was also seen visiting the bus several times.

"I needed to do something," Pecker said. "I mean, my posters weren't perfectly symmetrical and not all the corners were even. What else was I supposed to do but sell my body?" Pecker asked.

GW President Stevie Joe Hindenberg could not be reached for comment, but who cares? Vice Comedian for Academic and Support (yeah, right) Services Bobby-o Chernplaque said he had absolutely no idea what was going on because his secretary had not informed him.

Sex beat

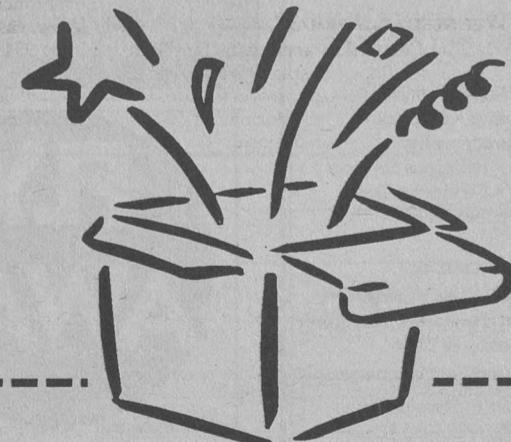

According to Director of GW Insecurity Captain Kurt "Gee I'm Goode in the back of those campus patrol cars," there has been an alarming increase in students' promiscuous behavior around secluded areas such as the wall by Lisner Auditorium.

Fake-It "I send headlines" editor Schmave Webster was found tied-up buck naked in the Chick's Issues Now office. At first, authorities suspected the head broad, Large Marge Mazzola, but it was later revealed that he had begged Hairy "I fuck Barbies who do my laundry" Spewmaker of WR — we have three listeners — GW to put him there so he could be close to all the totally cool, censored music played there.

• • •
GW Fake-It editors Jiffy Goldjew
(See me HAVING SEX, p.102)

Discover Kinko's Resumé Papers!

Resumé Copies 8¢!

Bring this coupon to the Kinko's listed and receive copies onto any of our specialty resumé paper for 8¢ per copy. Not valid with any other offer.

Offer valid through April 30, 1991.

Open 'Til Midnight
7 Days a Week
(202) 331-9572
2000 Pennsylvania Avenue

kinko's
the copy center

Please Join SAFI
(Student Association For Israel)
Participate in International Week
Save these dates:

April 1st - Israeli Dancing
April 2nd - Speaker/ Arab-Israel Relations

For times and places consult the International Week Directory

YAF, PSU protest each other's protests in protest

by Peter Douglas Jameson

Midnight Editor

The GW Progresso Soup Union and Young Americans for Fritos faced off in opposite corners of the Quad, Saturday, rallying around what members from both groups called "an issue vital to our fundamental beliefs and philosophy."

The approximately 50 protestors yelled and chanted for 40 minutes until disbanded by University Police.

According to a PSU member who did not wish to be identified because she said her mother does not know she is a leftist, the protest began after the PSU decided to co-sponsor a program with the new student group Campuses Against Cancer.

CAC, after bringing a hypnotist twice to campus, had scheduled to hold a "grandiose" seance and levitation demonstration Friday on the Quad, according to CAC Coordinator Barry Waxman.

"We've been against war, against Bush, against tuition, against books, err, I mean bricks, and the group decided it would be consistent to support CAC — an organization dedicated to fight one of the most evil murderers in the world," PSU member Brad Seagull said.

After learning of the PSU's support of the program, YAF immediately planned to protest the event, but because of rain, the rally was postponed until Saturday, according to YAF dude Christopher Robbins.

Waxman said, when rescheduling the event for Saturday, CAC had to cancel the seance portion of the event because the visionary who would have conducted the ceremony reported she was unable to work because it was her medium's day off.

When learning of YAF's intentions to protest the event, PSU scheduled a counter-protest, Seagull said. "There is prevalent homophobia, racism and sexism on this campus. Now we see this rash of blatant cancerism," Seagull said.

YAF ringleader Snot Laugh was reportedly passing out business pro-cancer literature and was joined by Robbins who carried a placard reading,

"Another Student Against Campuses Against Cancer."

Before being disbanded by University Police, protestors reported being spat at and having half-smoked cigarette butts thrown at them.

PSU member Beth Kankersore said, "This is outrageous. They are making cancer a litmus test for patriotism. Being against cancer does not make one a bad American."

Despite the disruptive activity occurring on the Quad, the levitationist elevated a rotund University Police officer 100 feet into the air, according to sophomore and Fake-It informant Maryann Kashimi. "We had to tie her down and carry her back to the Woodhill House like a helium balloon," University Police Director Curtis Badd said.

Kashimi said she had also witnessed 15 PSU and CAC members levitate to form a peace symbol above the Quad.

GW President Stephen Bankroll Tractorbutt could not be reached for comment regarding the protest, but Susan Kap-and-gown, Tractorbutt's administrative assistant, said she is unsure where the president would stand on the cancer issue.

Only 267 Shopping Days Left Until Xmas....

CLASSIFIED

GW HATCHET CLASSIFIED ADS INFORMATION

COMMERCIAL RATES
1-2 Insertions.....$0.35 per word
3-4 Insertions.....$0.30 per word
5+ Insertions.....$0.25 per word

STUDENT RATES
Same as Commercial Rates Except For Message Center.....$0.20 per word

DEADLINES
Tuesday's & Thursday's at.....12:00 p.m.

Categories

MESSAGE CENTRAL

Announcements • Birthdays • Congratulations • Entertainment • Lost and Found • Greek Life • Organizations • Personal Services • Rides • Student Messages • Textbooks

EMPLOYMENT

Agencies/Services • Campus Jobs • Help Wanted • Internships • Opportunities • Summer Jobs • Work Study

HOUSING

Housing Offered • Housing Wanted • Real Estate for Sale • Roommates

GENERAL SERVICES

Counseling • Musical • Photography • Recreation • Religious Services • Resumes • Services • Travel • Typing/WP

RETAIL

Automotive • Cameras For Sale - Miscellaneous • Furniture • Stereo & TV

HELP WANTED & TYPING SERVICES
MAY BE FAXED TO US AT
(202) 994-7442

YOU MAY MAIL YOUR COPY
ALONG WITH YOUR CHECK OR PLACE YOUR ADVERTISEMENT IN PERSON AT:

The G.W. Hatchet
800 - 21st Street, Northwest
Marvin Center ~ Room 434
Washington, D.C. 20052
Monday - Friday • 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.
(202) 994-7079

Announcements

Elliot School graduation tickets needed. If you have extras, please call Gretchen at 202-298-5938.

SPEECH CONTEST/CASH PRIZES
Issac Davis Speech Contest for graduating seniors in CCAS. Prepare a 5-7 minute persuasive speech. Contest to be held in Building YY, 812 20th Street, Conference Room, Monday, April 1, 7pm.

Personal Services

ADOPTION: devoted and secure couple longs to share love with a newborn. Legal and medical expenses covered. Call collect 202-232-1114.

ADOPTION: Happily married couple unable to have children wants to share a warm and loving home with an infant. We will pay medical, legal and birth related expenses. Call George and Barbara collect 1-703-573-7146.

ADOPTION: professional couple, have previously adopted. Financially secure, mother at home, will give excellent education, fun, values. Confidential. Legal, medical paid. Carol, Peter (703)-684-2979.

Pregnant but can't keep the baby? Childless married couple legally qualified to be adoptive parents, seek baby, any race. Phillip 301-949-5550 or Judith 301-924-4036.

Campus Jobs

The Law School International Law Journal is looking for an administrative assistant. Contact Deborah 994-7164.

I've Been Advertising With Them For Years. What's Your Problem Buddy???

Taxes not included. Restrictions apply. Fares subject to change. One way and faculty fares available. Work/Study Abroad programs. International Student & Teacher ID. EURAIL PASSES ISSUED ON THE SPOT!
Council Travel
3300 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.
202-337-6464

Help Wanted

EARN $$$ NOW

Established public interest telephone fundraising organization has immediate openings for reliable, articulate, motivated individuals. Earn $7-$11/hr. renewing memberships for non-profit cultural and grass roots lobbying groups. PT Sat. and eve's. Call after 7:00pm at 833-1200.

FAST FUNDRAISING PROGRAM $1000 in just one week. Earn up to $1000 for your campus organization. Plus a chance at $5000 more! This program works! No investment needed. Call 1-800-932-0528 Ext.50.

Front Desk, Answer Phones, Greet Clients, Friendly Atmosphere, Evening Hours Available, Phone (202)452-1861.

Hostess and wait staff, full-time/part-time, experience preferred, but not necessary, good people skills a must, Marocco's Italian Restaurant (202) 331-9664 between 2 and 5 P.M.

Host/hostess. For new condo sales office in downtown D.C. Need personable outgoing person who enjoys working with the public. Both full-time (during the week) and part-time (weekend) positions available. Call Tracy at 703-448-0591 for further information between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. M-F.

Law firm experience telephone staff $6/hour Wednesday 6-10 PM. On Farragut Metro stops. A unique experience for articulate and outgoing individuals to join phone team. Direct client contact, setting appointments, updating client data, reviewing files, other phone work. Please apply in person with resume (include tele-marketing experience) to Law Offices of Lillard and Lillard 1667 K Street, NW Suite 395 on Wednesdays at 5:30 PM.

LIFEGUARDS, POOL OPERATORS. F.T. and P.T. positions in DC, MD, BT. Good pay, bonus and incentive. Will train. Call American Pool today 301-464-2600.

Part-time office work, flexible hours, salary negotiable. Call (202) 994-4372 if interested.

RESEARCH ASSISTANT. Collect abstracts, Library of Congress, $8-9 hour. Call Arthur (202) 296-3643 for an appointment.

Receptionist Position. Law firm near campus seeks hard working, responsible, mature individual for flexible, part-time receptionist position (M-F). Must have excellent telephone manner, some typing skills. Pagemaker/Ventura skills a plus. Position starts immediately and could lead to a part-time summer position. Call (202) 466-8065.

Virginia direct marketing agency located near Roslyn Metro is seeking accounting major to provide data entry and clerical support. MUST BE DETAILED ORIENTED. Hours are flexible to fit your class schedule. Contact Joan Bennett, Tuesday - Thursday at 703-276-9032.

EUROPE by CAR RENT or BUY LOWEST PRICES FOR STUDENTS, TEACHERS

EUROPE BY CAR

One Rockefeller Plaza
New York, N.Y. 10020
Phone (212) 581-3040

Mail this ad for Special Student/Teacher Tariff.

RENTAL LEASE PURCHASE

Internships

PAID INTERNSHIPS

For an Insider's Guide to 100s of paid and volunteer internships in government and business send $7 to: Washington Internships, Box 12351H, Arlington, VA 22209.

Opportunities

ACTIVIST. Student Opportunities Available. We have 30 - 40 entry level positions open to concerned articulate environmentalists or motivated hard working fast learners. Work after class full or part time. Learn about the issues, earn your rent money and have fun making some waves. Do your part to stop tropical deforestation, acid rain, nuclear and toxic production. Work to promote safe, ecologically sound alternatives.

FULL OR PART TIME SPRING AND SUMMER POSITIONS AVAILABLE
Call Mike 202-667-7814. EOE.

BARTENDING Professional 2 week course. Free placement assistance. On Metro. (703) 841-9700.

Employment opportunity for responsible person, ideal for students. Part-time evening hours. $6.50/hour. At GW's Crystal City Education Center. Near Metro. (703) 521-9722.

HEALTHY MALES WANTED AS SEMEN DONORS
Help infertile couples. Confidentiality assured. Ethnic diversity desirable, ages 18-35, excellent compensation. Contact the Genetics & IVF Institute, Fairfax, VA, (703) 698-3976.

HEALTHY WOMEN WANTED AS EGG DONORS.
Help infertile couples. Confidentiality insured. Ethnic diversity desirable. Ages 21-33. Excellent compensation. Contact the Genetics & IVF Institute, Fairfax, VA (703) 698-3909.

Modeling seminar April 13th, 14th. Meet Self Magazine and Wilhelmina Models and top talent scouts from New York. Call (703) 715-6777 to register. Enrollment is limited.

Summer Jobs

Pennsylvania coed overnight camp seeks summer staff. Swim, crafts, radio, golf, nature, sailing, tennis, sports, general counselors, et al. Mark Glaser 16 Gurntree Lane Lafayette Hill, PA 19444 (215)-941-0128. A Great Experience!

Unique coed summer camp seeks cabin counselors, athletic director, other specialists. Local interviews. 1-800-445-6155.

Housing Offered

DAKOTA APARTMENT FOR RENT 5/15 OR 6/1 FOR SUMMER. 2 bedroom, 2 bath. Furnished or unfurnished. W/D, D/W, 24 hour security, A/C. Parking available. Call 296-3437.

Efficiency available for summer. Low rent. On-campus location. Call 965-3705.

In Foggy Bottom. Large efficiency with patio to sublet. June-August. Furnished. All utilities included $750 per month. Price and dates can be negotiated. 202-296-5406.

Own bedroom available in three bedroom apartment. Non-smoker, w/d, AC, parking. Call 452-9122.

Rooms to rent in house, minutes from West Falls Church. neat nonsmoker graduate student preferred. Laural (703) 237-8739 leave message, rent $375. Available Now!

Spacious townhouse apartment in Foggy Bottom for 4, 5 students across from Smith Center on F Street, NW. Can't be closer to GW if you tried. Available May through October. Call collect 413-567-7887. Mr. Shore (nights).

Housing Offered (Cont.)

Sublet needed. May thru Aug. Dakota, $425/mo., 2 spots. Call Jen at 676-2230 or 676-2233.

Three level, three bedroom, two full baths on upper level. Full bath walk out lower level. W/D, D/W, W/W, groups O.K. 10 minutes to D.C. $1,350. Evenings (703) 820-3041.

Housing Wanted

WANTED - SUMMER SUBLET. Furnished sublet/share (May-August) walking distance from Dupont Circle, Woodward Park Zoo, Cleveland Park, or Rosslyn Metro stops. Call Peter (203) 436-2532.

Real Estate For Sale

FOR SALE BY OWNER: 2 bedroom condo on 21 Street, $9,900. (703) 280-2604.

FOR SALE BY OWNER: Large studio condominium in Monroe House on 21st Street. Perfect for students. Excellent investment in quiet building. $74900 202-659-4932.

PRINTING

Relocation Sale

FREE FAX

Celebrate our move
(from 2011 Eye St.)
to our newer, more spacious quarters at 1910 K Street.

Pay $5.00 to send the first fax copy * and get the next two pages FREE - a $9.00 value!
Or pay $2.00 to receive the first page and get the next two FREE.

*No charge for the cover sheet. Toll charges additional.

1910 K Street, N.W.

(East Entrance)

Washington, DC 20006

(202) 785-4040

Fax (202) 785-2001

Sex Beat

continued from nowhere

and Sadam Sidel were caught fucking not sheep, but cows (yes, those Greeks are moving up in the world) at an IFC (I Fuck Cows) meeting last week. Upon arrest, Goldjew said, "Hell, we do it because they don't let us have little sisters anymore... come to think of it, they're better than the sisters!"

Fake-it staff whores Marlin Felt-up, Little Debbie Swallow-man and Swear-ah Blondie were detained by campus rent-a-cops after a 3 a.m. raid in the Patriot's Pantry. The three girls were performing a live titty show for the students who hang out in the cafe. They were released after pleading that they don't make enough money at the Fake-it to "get along" in the District because their hippy-ass pimp, Snott Hair-ed, stole all their dough in order to buy bleach for his golden locks.

Fake-It news slave Wayne's World Illstead and arts seducer Merry Fishy were caught performing bizarre strip teases in GW's Virgin Vault dormitory.

• • •

Head honchess Pat Rice Hall alerted campus feds to an "indescretion" involving Fake-it editors Jimbo "Lambda Rising" Plageriser, Bolonge "Edit at Will" Palermo, an econo-size tube of K-Y Jelly and a package of vanilla-flavored dental dams. Inspector J.R. Hardwell said it worse than anything he ever saw taking place in the Marvin Center 4th floor bathrooms. Pat Rice was awarded for her citizenry by the entire Office of Campus Chaos. The reward for Pat Rice was a night of sexual debauchery with SA president Frank Petridish and SA-fool elect Pyle, of Farmberries.

PRESENT THIS COUPON AND GET 50 PERCENT OFF YOUR NEXT HAIR WEAVE.
MIKE JARVIS HAS HAIR!!!!!!

Mike Jarvis before
Frank's Hair Weave...

(Call (617) 523-6050 and ask for top hairdresser John Kuester.)

Hi, I'm Mike Jarvis. At Frank's Hair Weave, I got the look I wanted. I used to be a bald, black, good-looking, talented basketball coach. After visiting Frank's Hair weave, though, I'm now a white, ugly, incompetent idiot who couldn't coach his way out of a paper bag. BUT AT LEAST I HAVE HAIR! Frank can give you the look you want, too.

Frank's Hair Weave
In the sub-basement of the Boston Garden
150 Causeway St.
Boston, Mass. 02114

Mike Jarvis after
Frank's Hair Weave.
(Call (617) 523-6050 and ask for top hairdresser John Kuester.)

CLASSIFIED

Roommates

Female wanted in great Dupont apartment to share with 2 others. Own bedroom, bathroom, full kitchen, w/d, ac, block from Metro, for summer. Call Liz 331-9016.

On campus, male roommate wanted to share furnished 1-bedroom apartment. Cable TV. Rent negotiable. 202-337-4621.

Roommate wanted to share 2BR apt. with non-smoking female graduate student. Please call Jenny 202-676-2360.

Wanted female roommate to share nice furnished 2-bedroom apt. Close to Woodley-Zoo Metro. Secure building. $450/mo. negotiable. Alicia (202)328-6552.

Resumes

Need help writing your resume but can't afford the prices charged by most resume writing services? Former human resources executive (whose duties include college recruiting) will work with you to produce same quality as higher priced professional services. Will beat price of any local service. Call Jerry at (202) 232-6360.

Resumes that work...so you can. Written, designed, and laser printed. Full career search assistance. Murray & Associates (703)971-6544.

Services

Foreign Students- Improve your English speaking skills. Spring Classes starting soon. (703)-931-5304.

Get help with college expenses through scholarships, grants. Now available. Call Steve Walker 301-627-8169.

Individual TAX RETURNS prepared by CPA. Call Misty Dey. 301-236-4979.

Shipping, Word Processing, Electronic Tax Filing, Adams Morgan, Dupont Circle, Your One-Stop Student Support Center, 387-8831, Mon. through Sat.

Tutoring: statistics, economics, math, 202-466-1652. Leave message, prompt response.

tutoring in STATISTICS (703) 578-1354; sessions: Arlington/Falls Church only.

Travel

AGENDA ADVENTURES Come to Colorado for one week (or more) of white water rafting, mountain biking, horseback riding and mountaineering. An unforgettable experience May - October, call now (703) 521-4940.

Typing/WP

ACCURATE WORD PROCESSING.
* Term papers, dissertations, theses, resumes, etc.
* Rush Assignments.
* Free pickup/delivery.
Call Christina, 703-553-3967.

ACE-RESUMES. Editing and writing, and typesetting (or printing from your disk). Same day service available. Visa/MC/Amex accepted. Student discount. 21st & Penn. 857-8000.

Accurate Typing and Word Processing. Resumes, cover letters, term papers thesis, dissertations. Student discounts. Near campus. Excellent grammar and spelling. RUSH jobs our specialty. 887-0773.

Typing WP Cont.

Ace Typing and Word Processing. Same day service available. Reports, legal briefs, letters, thesis, labels, envelopes, etc. Student discount. Visa/MC/Amex accepted. 2025 Pennsylvania Avenue, Room 226. 466-8973.

A professional typing and wordprocessing service. Pick-up and delivery. 301-587-5103.

Efficient, reliable typing of term papers, dissertations. Pick-up and delivery. $1.50/page. Call Mary Anna 202-857-8737.

EXPERT - RUSH WORD PROCESSING or TYPING done by professionals. 1552 Street, N.W., D.C. call 24 hours (202)842-0869.

Jo Jo wordprocessing typing term papers, resumes, etc.

Laser printer, fast, accurate, low rates, pick-up, delivery available. Call Jay (703)549-3855 or (202)332-0066.

PROFESSIONAL TYPING. Term Papers, Theses, Dictations, Resumes. FREE pick-up and delivery. $4.50-5.00 per page. (301)894-2603 Leave Message.

PROFESSIONAL TYPESETTING AND GRAPHIC SERVICES

Available on Campus

GW Hatchet Composition Shop

Fliers, pamphlets/brochures, programs/booklets, resumes, letterhead, business cards, vuegraphs/transparencies and more.

Quick turn-around; Low rates every day!
Located on campus - in the student union bldg.
M-F, 9-5, Marvin Ctr. 436,

800-21st Street, NW (across from Tower Records) Call 994-7079 for quotes and more info.

Professional Word Processing. Rush service/campus pick-up (301)779-1849.

Vast academic, legal and business experience. Word-processing, editing, writing. Papers, dissertations, books, resumes, cover letters, proposals. Student discount. Joan: 703-527-2151.

WORD PROCESSING. Prices start at 1.50/page. Pick-up, delivery. Rush jobs a specialty. Other services available. Call Denise. (301)772-0860.

WORDS PLUS WORD PROCESSING SPECIALISTS TERM PAPERS
REPETITIVE LETTERS
RESUMES/SF171
LASER PRINTING
QUICK TURNAROUNDS
STUDENT RATES, ALEXANDRIA, VA 703-922-7264

Word Processing - $2 per page double-spaced includes pick-up & delivery. Discount for repeats, referrals, long documents. (703)522-6383.

Word processing, dissertations, theses, term papers, etc. $2.25/page minimum. Cynthia Parker 703-549-8662.

Automotive

1987 Plymouth Horizon, 4-door, white, AC, AM-FM stereo, great condition, original owner. Call Sarah at 202-994-7080.

For Sale - Misc.

Nautilus Club membership for sale over summer months. Michael 994-9530.

Furniture

For sale: DRAFTING TABLE with swing lamp, parallel rule, and cutting pad. Sturdy, good condition, $150. Call 202-994-1498.

The GW Hatchet Business Directory

We are proud to introduce a new service to our reading public...a monthly business directory for area businesses. The GW Business Directory will be featured in the first Monday issue of each month in the GW Hatchet.

Circulation 12,000
Estimated Readership 25,000
Number of Students 17,000
Number of Faculty & Staff 8,000

• Schedule of Publication •
First Monday Issue
of each month as follows:

March 4

April 1

May 6*

May 13

June 17

July 15

Resumes for $22.00

Only here, only now.

The GW Hatchet Resume Service

Marvin Center ~ Room 434
800 21st Street, Northwest
Washington, D.C. 20052
(202) 994-7079

REITER'S SCIENTIFIC & PROFESSIONAL BOOKS

MONDAY-FRIDAY 9:00-7:30

SATURDAY 9:30-6:00

SUNDAY 12:00-5:00

2021 K STREET, NW • WASHINGTON, DC 20006
TELEPHONE 202/223-3327
TOLL FREE 1-800-537-4314 • 1-202-296-9103

EN ROUTE TRAVEL

A FULL SERVICE AGENCY - OUR EXPERT ADVICE IS FREE TO YOU

CUSTOMIZED VACATION PLANNING • DISCOUNT CRUISES
GROUPS AND INCENTIVE TRAVEL • CORPORATE TRAVEL

1667 K STREET, N.W. • LOCATED ON 17TH BETWEEN K & L STREETS
1 BLOCK FROM FARRAGUT NORTH & WEST METRO STATIONS

FOR INFORMATION & RESERVATIONS
PHONE (202) 293-3900
FAX (202) 466-3016

SPEARMS

Nazi athletic assholes kill sports editors

by Jack "I'm Shitfaced" Kerouac
Fake-It Beatnik

In a bloody revolt against all the unfair reporting The GW Fake-It has given sports this year, members of GW's Department of Athletics and Masturbation administration jumped members of the sports department Friday afternoon, killing head Sports Hack Ted Crotch and Assistant Axe-man Scott Ganja in the Fake-It fourth-floor office in the Marlin Center.

Police have arrested GW Assistant Scumbag for the Advancement of Himself Mike Garschlongo and GW Sports Gestapo Agent Betsy Boop in connection with the murders of Crotch and Ganja.

University Pig Director Kurtis Bad said that the victims were found in the GW Fake-It middle office with newspapers stuffed down their throats. All the papers contained stories about GW losses.

Witnesses to the crime said that while Crotch and Ganja were in their office conspiring how to bring GW's athletic program to its knees, Garschlongo and Boop rushed into the office with three bags of basketballs. Garschlongo and Boop then repeatedly pelted the two with the balls, rendering them unconscious before going through all past Fake-Its for "results I did not like," according to Garschlongo.

The two then took sports pages and systematically jammed them down Crotch's and Ganja's throat, in chronological order, until they suffocated. According to reports, Garschlongo and Garschlongo to an empty room in the Marlin Center. There, he was interrogated by Garschlongo, Vice President of Academic Athletic Support Services Bobby Chernyuck, Former President Ronald Raygunz, three homeless men, one of those old guys from Henry's and the problems in the Middle East was mapped out.

"I saw it, it really happened," witness Maryann Kashimi said.

When asked to comment, Garschlongo said, "You're damn right I did it. Those little bastards had it coming to them. What they wrote in that rag of theirs was ridiculous. I mean, when they said we lost (in the NIT to South Carolina), that was the last straw. Where do they get off printing that crap?

"Some of the questions they ask these kids are really difficult. Things like 'What did you think of the game?' are difficult for these guys to answer. They are only in college after all," he added.

Boop echoed much of the same sediment, stating, "There is no need (for defeats) to go into the newspaper. It is not information people need to know. I figure if we can make up statistics, we can make up game results too!"

Bad said that police also questioned 'GW-men's-basketball' player-for-life Ellis McSlappin', but he was cleared of any wrong doing. Said McSlappin', "Finally, I get cleared of a charge from this school. I'm sick of this shit. But I got the last laugh. I was a spy for South Carolina during the NIT and I'm going to transfer there and play 10 more years for the Lamecocks. Ha ha. Crotch and Ganja, see ya!"

Boop and Garschlongo go ir.cognito at a recent press conference

Boop then yelled "Where's Stogie?", supposedly referring to Fake-It senior sports writer Smolder Stolzenburgermeisterbrau, a sports department favorite.

Stolzenburgermeisterbrau, who was present at the time, ran out of the room screaming "weinersnitchzel, weinersnitchzel" and "Deutchland, Deutchland" before being dragged by Zionists Yo Knows, where a solution for

After three hours, Stolzenburgermeisterbrau emerged from the room, screaming that he had denounced Hitler and all his works and that he wished to be returned to the squash club beat. He later was seen discussing the Israeli-Palestinian conflict with Fake-It token Zionist Yo Knows, where a solution for

Batters frolic on field

Agitated farm animals found on scene

by Rast A. Farlan

Legalize-it Toker

The GW baseball program was canceled yesterday after officials discovered members of the team had performed perverse sex acts on Francis Field.

GW director of dianetics and mastication, Steve Bill-Me-Later, said he wasn't sure which players were involved. "Who the hell knows?" he said. "They all wear those hats all the time. Besides, they all look the same, anyway. It doesn't really matter, everyone knows they're a bunch of rogues."

GW prez Schemin' Joel Tractor-but said no one was sure what took place. "I don't know who was involved. They all wear those hats all the time and besides, they all look the same."

Bill-Me said he wasn't sure of the exact acts that took place on the field. "I don't know," he said. "All we know for sure is there were eight or nine players, a number of farm animals, baseball bats, cleats and something that looked like a big pile of cottage cheese." Bill-me said the animals were all wearing GW baseball hats and numerous dental dams were left on the field after the incident.

Bill-Me said he stumbled onto the scene around midnight Saturday when he and Sports Information director Betsy Feret emerged from the woods in Rock Creek Park neighboring the field.

GW pitcher Bill Slanderson said the players didn't think it was any big deal. "Yeah, we did it," he said. "Hell, the basketball team got its Midnight Madness last year, we figured we'd get ours this year. It was just our way of christening the new field."

In her defense, Feret said GW baseball coach "Long" John Castleberry was present the night of the incident. "Long" John denied the allegation, insisting it must have been someone else. "It wasn't me," he said. "She probably got me confused with one of the players. We all look alike you know."

Outfielder Ken LeCar said the team had a pool going on who would get expelled as a result of the scandal. "It's low-stakes. $500 to get in."

Maryann Kashimi verified the incident. "I saw it all," she said.

Hoyas join Lame-10 to Billski's delight

by Yitzchak Shamir

Adamant Zionist

In an unscheduled announcement early Sunday morning at Loser's Sports Bar in Georgetown, Steve "Buffalo" Billski, GW's Red Auerbach wanna-be and John Hump'son, the Georgetown's men's basketball head honcho, swore a blood vow that the Hoyas were joining the Up-and-Coming-but-still-behind-the-ACC-and-Big-East Atlantic 10 Conference for all sports, effective April 1 at 12:01 a.m.

"We've always felt that the up-and-Coming-'whatever-they-call-it' Conference was a more suitable athletic fold for our sports' philosophies," Hump'son said.

"The up-and-Coming-'we're-really-getting-better' Conference is extremely giddy over the Big Man's acceptance of our offer," Buffalo Billski toasted between his 15th and 16th martini. He added that the Colonials will be renamed the Colons to fit in with the two-syllable Hoyas.

"I saw it all; it really happened," Maryann Kashimi said.

"GW's players may be better students, not getting arrested and everything, but we have won more games," Hump'son said. "This is more than a game, it's an industry. I take these kids off the assembly line, add a few spare parts and after four years the most devoted of them are ready to make six figures in the NBA. The rest don't exist as far as I'm concerned."

Most of Georgetown's teams will play in the 10's-conference fold, however their Division CCMXXIV-AAAA football team is under par. As part of the agreement between Hump'son and Billski, the GW women's gymnastics team will begin playing the Hoyas in football beginning in the year 2091.

"We'll cream 'em. I'm just sorry I'll be dead when we finally get to play them, but coach will still be around," fresh-woman tumbler, Hikki "ex" Conner declared.

Responses from Colon and Hoya players were promising. "I'm just happy to have the opportunity to play ball against such a fine prostitution as George Washington University. I'm mind-evaginating that I will soon be prostrating my inflamatory anesthetics in the outwardly excretive Kingdome," Alonzo "I'm in" Mourning articulated.

"I will just say that it is no secret that I have wanted to prove to everyone that I am a better ball player, I just wish there was some way I could keep playing at GW," seventh-year senior Headlice "With a closer shave I can beat Jordan" McKenzie extrapolated.

Already agreed upon as the first encounter between the Hoyas and Colon is Patrick Ewing Day in which Ewing — a former player for GW head coach Mike "Mr. Clean" Jarvis and Hump'son — will referee the game and sell popcorn. He will also play center for the winning team in a benefit game against Villanova and be rewritten into the history books as the schools' all-time leading everything.

"We haven't told him yet, but it will give him the opportunity to avenge the 1985 finals' loss and to be named King of D.C. as well as get some old fashioned GW booty . . . he'll do it," an anonymous phone call hinted.

Up, up, and away

GW center Byron Hopkins was admitted to the MAYO clinic for eating disorders earlier this week as his weight has dropped from his normal 110 lbs. to a dangerously low 75 lbs. for his 6-9 frame, according to GW trainers.

Hopkins, pictured above, was often the butt of his teammates' practical jokes due to his weight deficiency, including the age-old "helium-filled basketball" trick. ByHop is shown here being pulled off the ground by the floating ball.

Byron Hopkins fan club member Paul Canoli said he was very saddened to hear of the center's condition. "I called his room as soon as I heard, but there was no answer," he said. "I just hope (his sickness) won't effect his hair. That's key."

But Canoli was also concerned for himself. "Now I'm going to have to figure out another scam to get on T.V.," he said. "(Hopkins) was my meal ticket."

Kuester Kanned, part II

In an enormous move that shook the basketball world, former GW flunky Johnny-boy Q-stir was dismissed as video coordinator/towel boy/piss boy for the Boston Celtics.

Reading from a prepared statement, Q-stir said that he understood the reasoning behind his dismissal, but that he had already been offered a job as head coach of Joe's Backyard BBQ over-70 wheelchair team in Chapel Hill, N.C.

Q-stir said that he had seen the team and that the handicapped senior citizens' play was "outstanding."